

Stacy Hayano
Senior Associate Vice President, Sacramento State University

Stacy Hayano was appointed as Senior Associate Vice President in May 2017 after serving as the Interim Vice President and Chief Financial Officer for the University's Administration and Business Affairs division. Stacy's current role includes providing direct oversight to the Budget Planning and Administration family, serving as a member of the University Budget Advisory Committee by developing and presenting financial information and documentation to the committee for review and action, and working with the VP/CFO to manage strategic and high profile projects.

With the University for over 30 years, Stacy is a proud alumni who earned her B.S. in Business Administration and has served in a variety of capacities, primarily in Accounting Services and Budget Planning and Administration. She is also serving on California State University (CSU) system wide committees, the Budget Officers Association Executive Committee, and various campus committees. She loves Sacramento State and takes great pride in supporting the university's mission and its students. She is also a huge fan of CapRadio and how it delivers non-bias, informative, and accurate news.
