Candidate Statement (200 word limit):

As a professional mediator and community organizer I have the skills, the experience and the fresh ideas to solve problems, both old and new. I am out in the community every day, talking to neighbors and helping them work through issues to make District 8 a better place to live. I am committed to working with residents and city officials to make our community and city shine. I have worked for the California State Legislature, the California State Court System and the Sacramento County Probation Department. I use my knowledge of those governmental entities to help neighbors successfully navigate through what can sometimes be a confusing and frustrating system.

As a member of the Sacramento City Council, I will continue to focus on beautifying our neighborhoods, helping at-risk youth, bringing quality jobs to the district, improving access to health care and education. I will continue to work with community groups to provide a safe place for our children and young people to grow and enjoy this great city. As Sacramento grows and changes, we must also grow and change. As your city council member, I will bring a fresh new voice to this process. I respectfully request your vote.
