

SHARE STORIES
EXPLORE SOLUTIONS
GET INVOLVED

Want to get more involved in local initiatives that support youth in ways that help them stay in school, remain safe, feel supported, and graduate? Here are some initiatives that promote youth development and community well-being.

Add your contact information if you'd like these groups to communicate with you about how to get involved.

DESCRIPTION	NAME	EMAIL/ PHONE
Stockton Educational Equity Coalition (SEEC): The purpose of SEEC is to work towards educational equity through student and parent mobilization and working with the school district. With the community, we work towards improving the academic achievements of our children and youth by working on issues such as restorative justice, school discipline and school funding. Contact: Fathers & Families of San Joaquin, (209) 941-0701
DESCRIPTION	NAME	EMAIL/ PHONE
Boys & Men of Color (BMoC): BMoC is a state-wide and local alliance that works collaboratively with probation, school district, health services, and community based organizations to keep boys and men of color out of our prisons and cemeteries and in our schools. Contact: Fathers & Families of San Joaquin, (209) 941-0701
DESCRIPTION	NAME	EMAIL/ PHONE
San Joaquin County Youth Network: Our goal is to strengthen the connection with youth services providers and the community in SJC to attract and increase resources to SJC, build and develop our individual and group leadership capacity, and to create a seamless system of communication and response so SJC youths are not "falling through the cracks". Contact: Meredith Baker, mhuber@cpfsj.org

SHARE STORIES
EXPLORE SOLUTIONS
GET INVOLVED

Want to get more involved in local initiatives that support youth in ways that help them stay in school, remain safe, feel supported, and graduate? Here are some initiatives that promote youth development and community well-being.

Add your contact information if you'd like these groups to communicate with you about how to get involved.

DESCRIPTION	NAME	EMAIL/ PHONE
Healthy Youth: This project integrates health nutrition workshops and physical activities into a tutoring assistance program for Cambodian youth. It also promotes a healthy lifestyle among low-income youth by conducting a nutrition workshop and physical activities using My Plate Curriculum, California Children's 5 a Day, Power Play, Yoga, as well as traditional dancing. Contact: Sovanna Koert, samchith@hotmail.com, (209) 513-7618
DESCRIPTION	NAME	EMAIL/ PHONE
Speakers Bureau: Building Futures Academy is seeking community members interested in serving as guest speakers who can discuss their experiences in overcoming barriers, attending college or describe what employers are seeking in entry-level employees. Contact: Doug Silva, dosilva@sjcoe.net, (209) 468-8140
DESCRIPTION	NAME	EMAIL/ PHONE
Attendance Celebration/Awards Ceremony: At Building Futures Academy Charter School monthly ceremonies are held to recognize students who have achieved perfect attendance, attained maximum credits, or demonstrated positive character traits. We are always seeking sponsors to help us celebrate our students' success by providing t-shirts, gifts cards, or pizza parties. Contact: Doug Silva, dosilva@sjcoe.net, (209) 468-8140

SHARE STORIES
EXPLORE SOLUTIONS
GET INVOLVED

Want to get more involved in local initiatives that support youth in ways that help them stay in school, remain safe, feel supported, and graduate? Here are some initiatives that promote youth development and community well-being.

Add your contact information if you'd like these groups to communicate with you about how to get involved.

DESCRIPTION	NAME	EMAIL/ PHONE
Truancy Task Force: Quarterly the one. Program teams up with local District's CWA, law enforcement, and counselors to conduct home visits on truant students. The purpose of these visits is to speak to students and families about the importance of school and help them to overcome obstacles. Often students lack transportation so any donation of bus tickets or bicycles is welcome. Contact: Elsa Lopez, elopez@sjcoe.net, (209) 468-4847
DESCRIPTION	NAME	EMAIL/ PHONE
Attendance Celebrations: At one. Initiative monthly ceremonies are held to recognize students who have achieved perfect attendance, attained maximum credits, or demonstrated positive character traits. We are always seeking sponsors to help us celebrate our students' success by providing t-shirts, gifts cards, or pizza parties. Contact: Lonnie Cox, lcox@sjcoe.net, (209) 468-9290
DESCRIPTION	NAME	EMAIL/ PHONE
one. Initiative: Frontier Sites for habitually truant students: These sites have wrap around services (Child Abuse Prevention Council, 654 Probation Assistance, and Mental Health Clinicians that serve the students and families). We are always looking for organizations or people to help with awards, events, etc. Contact: Lonnie Cox, lcox@sjcoe.net, (209) 468-9290		